WANT A THROUGH TRAIN SERVICE

Effort to Bring Lynchburg, Lexington, Stannton and Harrisonburg Closer.

WILL ASK A CONNECTION

Business Men From Those Cities Here to Confer With Railway Officials.

Delegations of prominent and influential business and professional men from Lornchburg, Lexington, Staunton and Harrisonburg are in the city to confer today with President George W. Stevens and other efficials of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway in the effort to secure better connection and improved train service from Lynchburg and Harrisonburg. The various cities and towns desire to secure a through train service from Lynchburg to Harrisonburg, and hope to present to the Chesapeake and Ohio officials arguments that may induce them to see that it is to the mutual advantage of the railroad and its patrons that such service be given.

The representatives of the cities and towns named are: Lynciburg, Mr. John C. Dabney, vice-president of the Board of Trade, who is now at the Richmond, and Mr. John A. Faulkier, secretary of the board, who is expected this morning; General Scott Shipp, Captain S. B. Walker, Jr., and Mr. B. Estos Vaughan and Mr. W. LeC. Stovens, of Lexington; Messres E. W. Carpouter, James L. Avis and Frank L. Sublett, of Harrisonburg, and Frank L. Sublett, of Harrisonburg, and Frank L. Sublett, of Jarrisonburg, and Frank C. Sublett, of Jarrisonburg, and Frank L. Sublett, of Jarrisonburg, and Frank Carke Worthington, of Staunton.

Held a Conference.

These gentlemen held a conference at Murphy's last night and agreed upon their plan of procedure at a meeting with President Stevens and other Chesapeake and Ohio officials this morning, Just what those plans are the gentlemen nained do not cutline, further than to say that they propose a conference with the rallway representatives in the effort to secure a through tarth service from Lynchburg in Harriscoburg, ya Lexington and Staunton, a distance of about 112 miles. The Chesapeake and Ohio operates a line. Balcony Falls and thence to Loch Laird, a distance of nearly cight and and Independent of the Chesapeake and Chio operates a line. The Shennandeah Valley, division tracks, From Lexington down the valley to Harrisonburg, a distance of skiy-two miles, the line is owned and operated by the Baltimore and Ohio Rallway, mussing under thie main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio at Staunton. As stated the Chesapeake and Ohio alexanton La state, the Units married the Morfolk and Western paralleling the old Chesapeake and Ohio Actington between the points named, the Norfolk and Western paralleling the old Chesapeake and Ohio's Lexington between the points named, the Norfolk and Western paralleling the old Chesapeake and Ohio's Lexington between the points named, the Norfolk and Western paralleling the old Chesapeake and Ohio's Lexington branch.

It is not intimated that the rallways may be required to connect, upon proper representations made to the State, continued of petition, and the architect of the corporation article in the Constitution, will probably be one of, if not the, spokesman of the various delegations.

NEGRO ALLEGES

Charles Williams, a negro, formerly in the employ of Mr. A. W. Bennett as a carriage driver, has been indicted in the Hustings Court on the charge of attempting to defraud the Passenger and Power Company by alleging that his wife had died as the result of an injury received through a fault of the company. It has developed that Williams's wife is alive in Hanover county, and that she has given the counsel for the railway company valuable information concerning the case. The woman was slightly hurt, and Williams was hald a small sum as a compromise by the company, after he had threatened suit.

He then represented to the company that his wife had suffered a second lingury from the cars of this company, from which she had died, and the commenced a persistent campaign for more money, again threatening suit if it was not forth-coming. Meanwille he made the same representation to Mr. Bennett, and that we had the chought was for burial expenses. Mr. Bennett's drivers also gave Williams some money. When the Passenger and Power efficials found Williams had sought to deceive thom, the negro left the city, and is now in jail there awaiting trial. He will be brought here and tried when the Henrico authorities dispose of him.

It is said that Williams had served a term in the penitentiary.

Mind Reading

Perhaps the young woman to whom you gave your seat in the car the other day is the best stenographer in the city-would be worth more in your office than any other young woman in the city-would be able to intelligently do the things which have long been a burden to you, but which you have not been able to delegate to any one else; but—

Not being a mind-reader you didn't know all this-nor that the young lady is "looking for a better situation;" and as you don't know who she is, you must look for her by proxy—through a Tec-Dec

To ONE man in this city—perhaps the man who stepped on your corn two weeks ago-that house you want to sell is worth at least a hundred dollars more than it is worth to any other man. So that it is worth at least a hundred dollars to you to find the man and to talk business to him; but—

You are not a mind-reader, and you remember little of him except that he weighs at least two bundred pounds and wears shoes that are like irou—so that this little "hundred dollar errand" of finding him must be entrusted to a Tee-

The man who has idle money enough to furnish you that needed new capital walked past your store twice yesterday; the servant who would be worth to your wife twice as much as her present one, leaves her place in the house three blocks from yours next week; the tenant who never broke a lease, and to whom your apartment would be sure to appeal strongly is now looking about for a place like it; the man who would buy that horse and carriage of yours without an hour's parley was "next" to you at your barber's yesterday; but—

You can't read minds, and you go bumping into people all the time who could be useful and helpful to you. So, if these people are worth finding you must give the job to a Tee Dec Want advertisement,
